"Of all the paths you take in life, make sure a few of them are dirt."
- John Muir

South Africa is a very outdoors-oriented country. Our citizens enjoy being outdoors, getting our dosage of Vitamin D.

We have so much opportunity to enjoy being outdoors, but usually, our hobbies and adventures need certain equipment.

Bush Trade brings together outdoor enthusiasts to connect, trade, and get outdoors again.

We feature a variety of categories in which our enthusiasts can advertise their equipment, companies. Target your audience with pinpoint accuracy by placing your advert in the right category for your product or service.

- hunting
- optics
- boats
- clothing
- vehicles
- firearms
- fishing
- bowhunting

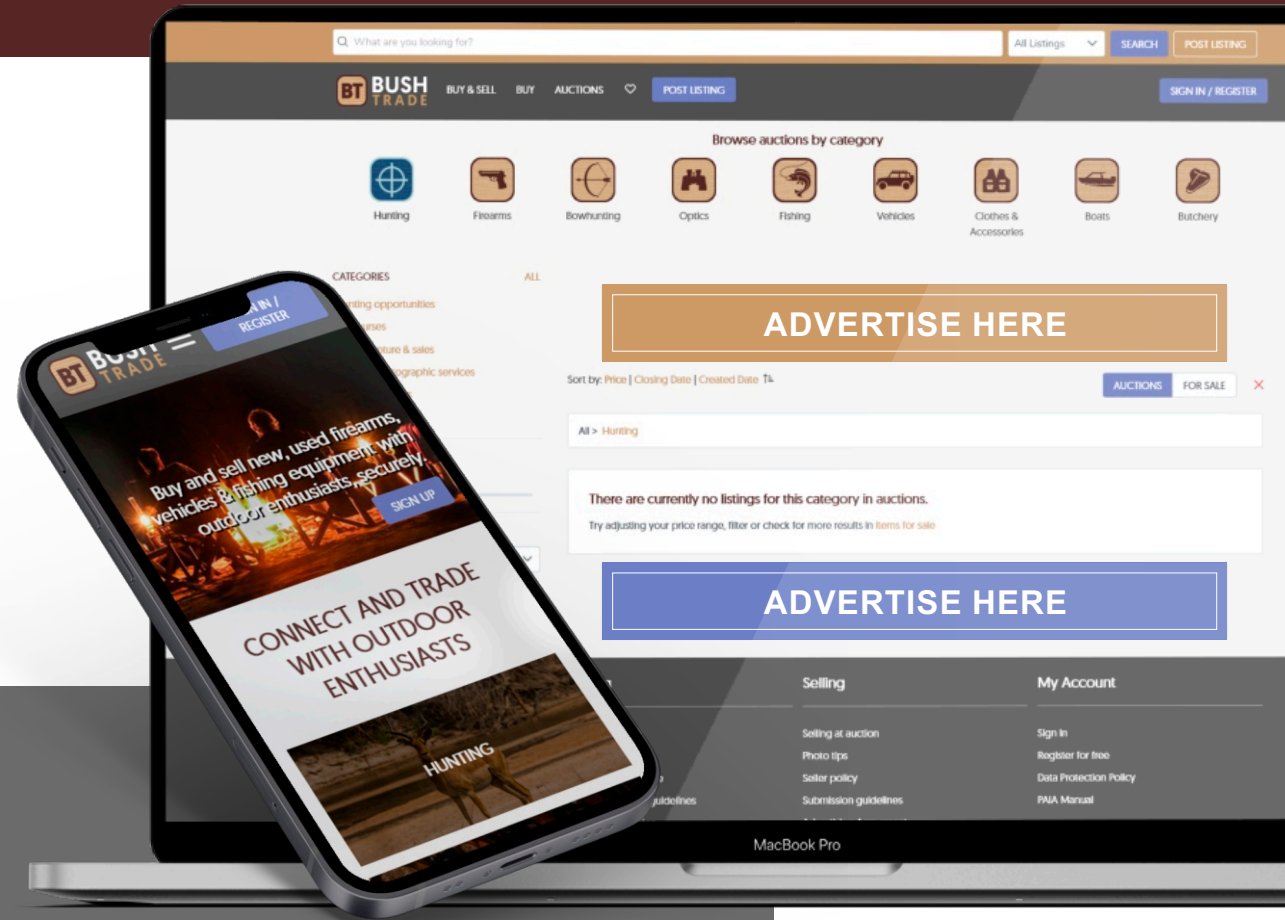

Make sure that you are placed on the most desirable platform for your audience to find you.

There are a select number of advertising slots on our website, which means that choosing to let us promote you is not only a 24/7 deal, but you are in a select group of people who are able to get in front of an outdoors audience.

We have two different packages for advertising on our website. Home page advertising and Category page advertising.

Home page advertising allows you to be featured on the landing page of the website, where your advert will be visible to the audience who land here to trade.

Category page advertising allows you to be target a specific category of audience by having your advert visible to them.
