

COOKIE POLICY

The website www.bushtrade.com ("Website") uses cookies. Cookies are text strings created by a server and stored on the hard disk of a user's computer, or any other device a user use to access the Internet (e.g. smartphone, tablet or the like). These stored cookies are then again applied and retransmitted each time a user accesses the Internet.

Cookies allow the collection of information about user navigation on the Website, for example to store a user's language preferences or a currency he/she has previously used for a purchase or to deliver advertisements relevant to you. These cookies are used to propose and apply these preferences during a user's next visit to the Website to facilitate the user's use of the Website.

Cookies may be stored permanently on a user's device and have a variable duration (so-called persistent cookies) or may disappear when the browser is closed or have a limited lifespan (so-called session cookies). Cookies may also help us to provide relevant ads to you, in measuring the performance of the advertiser's campaign by analysing your interaction with the advertiser's ads.

Cookies can be installed by the Website the user is visiting (so-called first party cookies) or may be installed by other websites (so-called third party cookies).

The user can limit the collection of his/her information by disabling cookies on his/her browser. The user may also be able to modify his/her browser settings to require his/her permission each time the Website attempts to set a cookie. However, if a user chooses to limit, disable or not accept cookies, some of the services available on Website may not function properly.
