4. DESCRIPTION OF OFFERINGS

The Provider provides a platform where -

- 4.1. Users can offer, sell and buy the Products listed on the Website; and/or
- 4.2. Users can bid on and purchase the Products on offer through Online Auction(s).

5. USER PARTICIPATION

- 5.1. The Website is a platform through which the Provider acts as the agent for the Seller who offers and/or sells Products either through the Website or by means of an Online Auction. As a result, the Provider only facilitates communication between the User and the Seller in respect of any potential Transactions and/or Sales and shall at no point in time become a party to a Transaction and/or Sale. The Provider is not an auction house and is not conducting live auctions at the premises of the Seller. The Provider reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change some or all of the Services offered through the Website at any time.

- 5.2. The Provider is not involved in the actual Transactions between the User and any external website linked to this Website and the User hereby accepts that all Products are sold “as is” and “with faults”, if any.
- 5.3. The Provider does not provide any warranties or guarantees around the quality, safety or legality of the Products advertised on the Website by a Seller for sale, the truth or accuracy of the listings, or the ability of a Seller to sell such Products. The Provider does not ensure that a Seller will actually complete a Transaction. Products placed on the Website may, at the Seller’s sole discretion or if directed by the Provider, be removed from the Website at any time prior to the time on which the sale expires.
- 5.4. Accordingly, since the Provider is not involved in or a party to the actual Transaction between the User and the Seller and furthermore does not provide any warranties or guarantees as per clause 5.3, the User hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold each of the Company Parties harmless (on demand and on a rand for rand basis) against any claims that may be brought against the Provider (either by the User, a Seller or a third party) for any costs, loss or damages (including but not limited to direct, indirect, consequential or special damages) arising out of or resulting from the User’s use of the Website and/or the Services and/or any Transactions or Sales.
- 5.5. Each Seller may have its specific requirements, terms and conditions that must be met or be complied with in order for the User to participate in an Online Auction or Transaction and each Seller has sole discretion to refuse to approve the User’s eligibility for participation. The Seller’s requirements may differ from these Terms and Conditions and the Seller’s individual requirements may lengthen or shorten the amount of time to claim the Products sold through any Transaction and/or may change acceptable payment terms.
- 5.6. The User understands that a Sale may be withdrawn for any reason whatsoever by the Seller until a Transaction is concluded or such time as a winner of an Online Auction has been declared and notified by the Provider via electronic mail. The User may only bid and use the Website and Service if he/she is registered for it. When bidding, the User agrees to comply with these Terms and Conditions as well as the Seller's specific rules, terms and conditions of auctions or sale contained in the individual sale posting. All auctions will be conducted in ZAR. Sellers may, in their sole and absolute discretion, set applicable minimum bids.

- 5.7. The winning bid in an Online Auction will be the highest bid to a registered participant on the Website (that exceeds the reserve price if any) which meets the other conditions that are specific to the Sale or Transaction. If the User is the winning bidder, he/she acknowledges and agrees that he/she has placed the highest bid above any reserve or minimum bid price and once the Provider confirms acceptance of the User's bid that the User has entered into a legally binding contract, the User may collect, within the time period provided as part of these Terms and Conditions or the terms and conditions regulating the Sale or Transaction (as posted by the applicable Seller) the Products from Seller's premises. Any attempt by the User to cancel or withdraw his/her bid after it has been accepted and determined to be the winning bid by Provider or the Seller, will be considered a breach of these Terms and Conditions.
- 5.8. Rules governing bid increments and other conditions the User must meet to purchase the Products, may change and shall be posted with each individual advertisement. The Seller will post the terms and conditions which are specific to the sale and which are in supplement to the ones contained in these Terms and Conditions. The User agrees to be bound by these additional bidding terms and conditions of sale by agreeing to these Terms and Conditions and by placing a bid or entering into a Transaction.
- 5.9. These Terms and Conditions, in addition to those terms and conditions posted by an individual Seller (where applicable), govern the User's bidding activity including the User's participation in an Online Auction. The Provider has the final right and determination with respect to the User's bid on the Products, the Sale of the Products, the resolution of disputes including the right, in the Provider's sole discretion, to determine: (i) who is the successful final bidder; (ii) any bid that the Provider believes may have a detrimental effect on the Products in question; (iii) any bid the Provider believes to be a fraudulent bid as described below; (iv) any bid which does not meet the minimum bid increments. The User understands that the Sale is not considered consummated or final until all money due is paid by the User to the Provider. Until such time, the User understands and agrees that the Seller of the Products may redeem such Products until the Sale is final.

- 5.10. The User's right to bid on the Website may, in the Provider's sole discretion, be suspended for a manual anti-fraud check for a minimum of 30 (thirty) minutes and may be suspended longer for a more complete investigation. The User shall have no claim against the Provider should the Provider, in its sole discretion, elect to suspend a User's bid on the Website. Accordingly, the User indemnifies and agrees to hold each of the Company Parties harmless (on demand and on a rand for rand basis) against any claims that may be brought against the Provider (either by a User, a Seller or a third party) for any costs, loss or damages (including but not limited to direct, indirect, consequential or special damages) arising out of or resulting from the User's suspension of his/her rights to bid on the Website in terms of this clause 5.10.
- 5.11. Any audio or video aspects of an Online Auction are for entertainment purposes only. The User will not rely on any audio or video posted on the Website or electronically to determine the status of the bidding on the Products, nor the value of the Products.
- 5.12. The Provider does not warrant that the Services will be uninterrupted or error free, or that bids will be received by the Seller or information regarding the current price will be transmitted in a timely fashion, nor do the Provider guarantee the performance of any obligations by a Seller.
- 5.13. In no event shall the Provider, the Sellers, or the Provider's suppliers be liable for lost profits or any direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with the failure of any bid or pricing information to be transmitted or received by the User or the Seller in a timely manner, the interruption of any data transmission, or these Terms and Conditions (however arising, including our negligence). The User hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold each of the Company Parties harmless (on demand and on a rand for rand basis) against any claims that may be brought against the Provider by a User, a Seller or a third party, for any costs, loss or damages (including but not limited to direct, indirect, consequential or special damages) arising out of or resulting from any failure of any bid or pricing information to be transmitted or received by the User or the Seller in a timely manner, the interruption of any data transmission, or these Terms and Conditions (however arising, including our negligence).

- 5.14. Prior to placing a bid a User will be required to enter his/her credit card details. Upon successful conclusion of a Transaction, the total amount payable will be immediately deducted from such credit card. Should that payment decline for any reason whatsoever, the User will be deemed in breach of contract and to have defaulted on these Terms and Conditions. The Provider and the Seller may continue to offer the Products to the next highest bidder or list the Products in the next scheduled Online Auction for the Seller. The User agrees to waive all claims against the Provider and the Seller arising from such declined payment, whether it be an error from the User's bank, hardware error, software error, internet connection, insufficient funds or otherwise. However, the Provider will make attempts to contact the User and give the User the opportunity to honor his/her bid, but administration fees will be payable to cover related expenses.

6. REGULATION OF THE SALE OR AUCTION OF CERTAIN PRODUCTS BY LAW

- 6.1. The User acknowledges that in respect of certain Products made available for sale by a Seller, including but not limited to the sale of firearms, ammunition and related products, certain legal requirements need to be adhered to in the sale, transfer of ownership and/or registration of such Products in the name of the User (hereinafter 'Legal Requirements'),.

The User further acknowledges and agrees that the Provider is not obliged to and does not ensure compliance with any such Legal Requirements by a Seller or User, as the case may be, in terms of this clause 6.

- 6.5.
